UC Extension discounts: Another reason to join the Alumni Association

JOIN THE UCSC Alumni Association and take advantage of its many membership benefits, including discounts at UC Extension, the continuing education resource of the University of California. Offering some 17,000 different courses each year, UC Extension is one of the world's largest providers of continuing education, with campuses at Berkeley, Davis, Irvine, Los Angeles, Riverside, San Diego, Santa Barbara, and Santa Cruz.

Some campuses are offering a 10 percent discount on one class per quarter, while others give a flat amount. The savings apply equally to Alumni Association members from all UC campuses, regardless of where they live or the campus from which they graduated. You don't even have to be in California to take advantage of the UC Extension discount. Many online courses are offered, and the discount applies to them as well.

For more information about this and other Alumni Association membership benefits, go to www.ucsc.onlinecommunity.com/members.asp.

Alumni indie rock band returns to UCSC

BY THE TIME Camper Van Beethoven first played the Catalyst in downtown Santa Cruz in 1986, the band had already completed a national tour as the opening act for R.E.M.

One of the most influential indie rock bands of the 1980s, the idiosyncratic group, featuring three UCSC alums, returned to Kresge College in November to give a free concert for UCSC students.

Camper won widespread critical acclaim and took college radio by storm with its first three albums—full of satiric, irony-laced lyrics and a dazzling array of musical influences.

After the band's first album hit the Top 30 in England and its first three recordings all made the Top 10 in Village Voice polls, Camper went on to make its major label debut on Virgin Records in 1989, releasing the landmark album Key Lime Pie before dissolving in 1990 during a tour in Sweden. Following a hiatus of more than a decade, the band got back together in 2002 and in 2004 released a CD titled New Roman Times.

Original core members of the band are guitarist/vocalist David Lowery (B.A. math, Kresge '84), bassist Victor Krummenacher (music major, Porter), drummer Chris Pederson (B.A. philosophy, College Eight '83), violinist/guitarist Jonathan Segel (B.A. music, Porter '85), drummer Chris Molla (B.A. music, Porter '88), and guitarist Greg Lisher, part-owner of Artisans, a store in downtown Santa Cruz.

Read more about Camper Van Beethoven's UCSC visit on the web at currents.ucsc.edu/05-06/11-28/camper.asp.
